

Washington's Paramount Duty Candidate Questionnaire - 2018

Washington's Paramount Duty is a group of parents, teachers, and community members who fight to ensure our state's public schools are fully and equitably funded. We are asking all candidates for the state legislature in 2018, regardless of party, to respond to the following questionnaire. These responses will be made public and shared with our more than 7,000 members across the state.

There are 12 short questions below. You must give an answer for the questions themselves, and following each question is space for you to expand on your yes/no/maybe answers should you wish to do so. We will publish those additional comments along with your answers to the questions themselves.

Candidate Name

1) Do you believe our public schools are amply funded right now, as is required by the state constitution? *

- Yes
- No
- Maybe (explain below)

(Additional comments for question 1)

Technically, yes, but this is an ongoing obligation and the needs of our students are dynamic and our educational system and economy are ever-changing. Since 2012 we have taken great strides to fill the gaps in education funding by satisfying the McCleary Supreme Court decision. That said, our state needs to remain steadfastly focused on making sure that public education throughout the state is accessible, equitable, fully funded, and of a high quality.

2) Will you vote for new, progressive revenues to sustainably fund our public schools? *

- Yes
- No
- Maybe (explain below)

(Additional comments for question 2)

3) Will you vote for these specific revenues? *

- Capital gains tax
- Closing corporate tax loopholes
- Other: .....

(Additional comments for question 3)

---

4) Will you vote to prevent $1.1 billion in school cuts caused by the January 1, 2019 levy cliff? *

- Yes
- No
- Maybe (explain below)

(Additional comments for question 4)

---

5) Will you vote to change the 2017 education funding deal (HB 2242) and add more funding to eliminate inequities between districts as well as ensure districts have the money they actually need to give every child a great education? *

- Yes
- No
- Maybe (explain below)

(Additional comments for question 5)

---

6) Will you vote to fully implement Initiative 1351, which creates smaller class sizes and increases in counselors, nurses, teaching assistants, librarians, and social workers, and in particular, with additional class-size reductions and staffing increases in high-poverty schools? More info:

- Yes
- No
- Maybe (explain below)

(Additional comments for question 6)

---

7) An OSPI survey of school districts found state funding for special education remains more than $100 million short after the 2018 legislative session. Will you vote to fully fund special education? *

- Yes
- No
- Maybe (explain below)

(Additional comments for question 7)

---

8) Would you support financial incentives to reduce school segregation (racial and economic)? *

- Yes (explain below what incentives you would support)
- No
- Maybe (explain below)

(Additional comments for question 8)

Yes, this is a novel idea, to me at least. Integrating students racially and economically vis-a-vis financial incentives, in my mind, will likely increase equity and ensure better student outcomes. I look forward to learning more about this idea and any ideas that can help students succeed.

Anything else you want to add about fully funding public education in Washington State?

My priority remains the same today as it was when I first ran for this position in 2014 – to be a voice for families and opportunity in the 28th district and across Washington State. Representing the 28th LD I have pledged to create opportunity for our kids, including fully funding K-12 schools, but also affordable two and four-year colleges to develop skills and job training so all kids can succeed. I stand by this commitment.
