

Washington's Paramount Duty Candidate Questionnaire - 2018

Washington's Paramount Duty is a group of parents, teachers, and community members who fight to ensure our state's public schools are fully and equitably funded. We are asking all candidates for the state legislature in 2018, regardless of party, to respond to the following questionnaire. These responses will be made public and shared with our more than 7,000 members across the state.

There are 12 short questions below. You must give an answer for the questions themselves, and following each question is space for you to expand on your yes/no/maybe answers should you wish to do so. We will publish those additional comments along with your answers to the questions themselves.

Anything else you want to add about fully funding public education in Washington State?

I believe in lifelong learning and have dedicated my career and community service to education. I have supported classroom instruction, taught in K-12 and postsecondary education, supported strong communities and the wellbeing of youth through community services, and fought for access to education through funding and support services students need to be successful. I believe the future of our families, communities, and economy depend on our commitment to the entire education pipeline from early childhood education, through K-12, and into postsecondary career pathways. I understand firsthand the struggles faced by education providers to acquire the resources needed to support students, as well as the many non-academic challenges students must overcome to focus on their education and be successful. I will take that passion and dedication to Olympia and be vocal and a consistent voice for education and the educators who share my commitment.
