

Washington's Paramount Duty Candidate Questionnaire - 2018

Washington's Paramount Duty is a group of parents, teachers, and community members who fight to ensure our state's public schools are fully and equitably funded. We are asking all candidates for the state legislature in 2018, regardless of party, to respond to the following questionnaire. These responses will be made public and shared with our more than 7,000 members across the state.

There are 12 short questions below. You must give an answer for the questions themselves, and following each question is space for you to expand on your yes/no/maybe answers should you wish to do so. We will publish those additional comments along with your answers to the questions themselves.

Candidate Name

1) Do you believe our public schools are amply funded right now, as is required by the state constitution? *

Yes

No

Maybe (explain below)

(Additional comments for question 1)

Our view of what goes into education is too narrow. It's not enough in this day and age just to fund the bare minimum for "reading, writing and arithmetic." I personally feel not enough is being done to ensure access to counseling services in our schools. That's just one example of where we fall short even after McCleary.

(Additional comments for question 5)

I have publicly stated the state needs to ensure that every child deserves to have access to the same level of quality education regardless of where they live.

This goes back to question five. I think the job of the state is to ensure children have equal and fair access to a quality education regardless of where they live. It's unfair to fund schools not every child has a chance at attending.
